Work Crews to Clean Riverview Cemetery on Saturday, January 24 Projected inspired by Governor Markell's 'Weekend of Service'

Delaware Department of Correction (DOC) offender work crews from the Plummer and Webb Community Corrections Centers in Wilmington will spend Saturday, January 24 assisting in the clean up of Riverview Cemetery. The two ten-man crews will join Friends of Riverview Cemetery to collect trash, trim low-hanging tree branches and gather up holiday grave markers and flowers.

Although the DOC and Friends of Riverview Cemetery have worked together previously, this particular project was inspired by Governor Jack Markell's planned 'Weekend of Service' on the 24th and 25th.

The offender crews will start their work at 8 a.m., with Friends of Riverview Cemetery helping from 10 a.m. to noon.
